

EARLY MORNING ON THE RIVER
June 6, 2011

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

The Phlox are in bloom, wherever you look. It seems that every field and wooded valley and glen is filled with them. Here is a shot of the Muskegon River that runs through town around 6:30 AM or so, with the mist on the river. It is very lovely.

