Notes: Gary Grimshaw: Allied Artists came along first, which turned into MSA, which was originally M? Sinclair. He had an investor named MR. Morda, I forget what his first name. And that's what that was. This was probably done by Frank Bach. He was the lead singer of the UP and John Sinclair's good buddy and a graphic artist. It looks like exactly something he would put together.

Free John Sinclair: Panther Logo

Notes: Gary Grimshaw: The white panther was just a reverse of the Black Panther. Al Shamie and I collaborated on the white panther. We thought that the original panther was a little too simplified, so we added big fangs on it. There is a whole another versions of it, but that's basically just a reverse of the black panther from the Black Panther Party
