

INTERVIEW WITH ASTROLOGER STEVEN FORREST
January 31, 2011

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

I came across this nice photograph of a younger Steven Forrest when I was rummaging around in the Heart Center library basement and I remembered the first time I met Steven when he came to visit Matrix Software and stayed at the Heart Center as our guest. It was good to meet an astrologer interested in spiritual ideas and who viewed astrology as a method of bringing these idea out both in himself and through counseling others. I thought some of my astrology Facebook friends might enjoy this Interview I did with Forrest. You can find it here:

I did not take this photo. Perhaps Steven sent it to me.
